

FSU FILM

COLLEGE OF MOTION PICTURE, TELEVISION AND RECORDING ARTS

Florida State University

Application Information for FRESHMEN APPLICANTS

The Film School is a limited access program, making admission selective and competitive. An applicant seeking to enter the program must offer an acceptable grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or better, SAT score of no less than 1200 (600/600), and/or a minimum ACT score of 25, and be eligible for admission to FSU. For consideration of admission into the film major, please submit a Film School application directly to our office. A separate application obtained from the FSU Office of Admissions must be submitted for consideration of admission to Florida State University. An application fee is required by the Admissions Office. Please contact their office directly for an application packet and further instructions at (850) 644-6200 or visit the FSU Website at <http://www.fsu.edu>. Below are instructions on applying to our undergraduate film school. Please contact us if you have any questions regarding our application process.

All items listed below should be submitted directly to the Film School and received no later than the application deadline of December 1 for consideration of admission in the Fall. Submit your application to: The Film School, A3100 UCA, Florida State University, Tallahassee FL 32306-2350.

Applications received after the December 1st deadline will not be considered for admission.
